Unconference: Experts Among Us!

(Based on an EdCamp model)

Back by popular demand, NYSASPA is excited to offer an unconference format again this year as an innovative way to provide professional development for our members by our members!

What is the format?

Topics are completely participant-driven and will be identified on the day of the session. Although you do not need to present, anyone with a topic of interest is encouraged to facilitate a conversation. You are welcome to propose a topic that you have an expertise in or one that you would like to learn more about. It's all about learning and sharing!

Do I need technology to participate?

Absolutely not! Although you may opt to take collaborative notes, tweet about the experience or even post a video, it not a requirement.

What do I bring?

Bring your excitement for learning and your preferred way of taking notes!

What will I take away?

You will take away a host of great ideas, new resources and enjoy time interacting with colleagues who share your interests and are willing to share their expertise!
